

Name: Inna Shtakser
Address (home): 18 Boaz str. Apt 5, Ramat-Gan, Israel 52491
Contact Information: Tel: 972-3-6704249
E-mail: shtakser@gmail.com

Curriculum Vitae

Education

2007 – PhD, History Department, University of Texas at Austin

1997 - MA, History Department, Tel-Aviv University, Israel – M.A. Thesis: “Gendered Language of the Russian Radicalism, 1902-1914”

1991 – BA, History Department, Tel-Aviv University, Israel

Work in progress:

Working-Class Anarchists in the Russian Empire, 1905-1917 (a manuscript I am currently working on)

Conference Papers

2009 – “ The Pogroms of 1905-7” and the Self-Defense Experience”, Russian Studies Department, Dalhousie University

2009 – “ Working-Class Jews of the Pale and Revolutionary Identity”, Stokes Seminar

2008 – “Access to Educational Opportunities as a Key to Politicization among Working-Class Jewish Youth in the Pale”, Annual Convention of the American Association for the Advancement of Slavic Studies.

2007 – “Violence and the Concept of Citizenship among Working-Class Youth of the Pale of Settlement”, Annual Convention of the American Historical Association.

2006 – “Revolutionary Identity, Activist Emotions and Violence among the Working-Class Jewish Youth of the Pale”, Annual Convention of the American Association for the Advancement of Slavic Studies.

2005 – “Revolutionary Identity and Youth Identity among Lower-Class Jews of the Pale during the 1905 Revolution”, Annual Convention of the American Association for the Advancement of Slavic Studies

Academic Awards and Fellowships

2013 - Fellowship in Russian and East European Studies - The Israeli Inter-University Partnership

2002 – Sheffield Fellowship for European History, History Department, The University of Texas at Austin

IEFS Fellowship, Study Abroad Office, The University of Texas at Austin

Dora Bonham Fellowship, History Department, The University of Texas at Austin

2001 – Winner of Regional Essay Competition, Southwest Slavic Association

Essay: “Social Hierarchies in St.-Petersburg Political Satire Journals, 1905-6”

1994 – Soraski Fellowship, History Department, Tel-Aviv University

Teaching Positions

2013-2014 – Research Fellow, Russian and East European Studies, Tel-Aviv University

2012-2013 – Lecturer, Harari College Worldwide

2011-2012 - Research Fellow, Apeejay Stya University

2008-2009 – Visiting Assistant Professor, Russian History, History Department, Dalhousie University

2007-2008 – Lecturer, Russian History, History Department, University of Texas at Austin

2005-2006 - Assistant Instructor, History Department, University of Texas at Austin (developing a teaching a course on Jews in Eastern Europe and a course on Western Civilization)

2003-2005 - Teaching Assistant, History Department, University of Texas at Austin (courses in Russian and Soviet history)

2000-2002 – Teaching Assistant, History Department, University of Texas at Austin (courses in Russian and Soviet history)

1999-2000 – Teaching Assistant, Middle Eastern Cultures and Languages, University of Texas at Austin

1998 – Course Supervisor “The Age of Revolutions”, Open University, Israel

1996-1998 – Providing Supplemental Instruction to the Immigrant Students, History Department, Tel-Aviv University

Courses Taught

Lecture courses:

European History – The Modern Period (Open University, Austin, Dalhousie, Apeejay Styra)

History of the Jews in Eastern Europe – (Austin)

History of Russia before 1917 – Dalhousie, Tel-Aviv

Soviet Russia – Dalhousie

Seminars:

Revolutionary Culture in the Russian Empire (Austin, Dalhousie)

Feminism in the Russian Empire (Austin)

Russian Intellectual History (Dalhousie)

Social History of Late Imperial Russia (Dalhousie)

Other Employment

2005-2007 – Editor and Project Organizer, Department of Classical Archaeology, University of Texas at Austin and Kiev-Mohila Academy in Kiev

1992-1998 – Research Assistant, History Department, Tel-Aviv University

1997-1998 – Researcher, Yif'at Company (doing research for public relations specialists)

1991-1997 – Freelance Translator

1990-1994 – Manuscript Evaluator, “Maariv” and “Kineret” Publishing Houses

1988-1992 – Computer Operator, Ta'abura Publishing House